OXNARD AUTUMN HOME TOUR SHOWCASES CLASSIC NEIGHBORHOOD

(Oxnard, CA) – Sunday, September 26, 2010, the Oxnard Autumn Historic Home Tour will feature no fewer than five homes in the historic heart of Oxnard during its 14th annual fundraiser for Oxnard’s Fifth Street Beautification Project. Visitors will enjoy docent-led tours inside homes built during the turn of the last century, as well as more modern homes. Additionally, classic cars, antique tractors, refreshments and a vibrant garden vendor marketplace will entice tour-goers to linger in one of Ventura County’s most attractive and hospitable neighborhoods.

The Oxnard Autumn Historic Home Tour runs from 10am to 5pm, beginning at the Carnegie Art Museum (424 South C Street) and at the Home Tour Marketplace (427 South F Street.) Ample neighborhood parking is available as is a trolley shuttle. Tickets are partially tax-deductible, $15 when purchased in advance, and $20 on the day. A lunch buffet and wine tasting are available for $45 per guest as a tour upgrade with trolley service to nearby Heritage Square. For tickets and information, please call 805.483.7960 or visit online at OxnardHistoricDistrict.com.
